AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSION FLUSHING SYSTEM

Additional service and turnover for your workshop

WOW! Automatic Transmission Flushing System (Art. no W 080 000 001) consisting of:

- WOW! Automatic Transmission Flushing System (ATFS)
- Quick Start Guide and manual

Features

- The WOW! ATFS is robust automatic transmission flushing device that can change automatic gear oil without problems and clean the gears in the same work process.
- No additives are needed to achieve excellent cleaning results.
- The WOW! ATFS operates on compressed air and uses only transmission oil for flushing, eliminating damage caused by aggressive cleaners.
- The WOW! ATFS has two steel containers for old and new oil each with a volume of 20 liters. Two high-performance filters (20 µm) clean the old and new oil during the flushing process. The old oil can be emptied easily and disposed of in the collecting system.
- The residual oil can be removed from the oil sump without any additional devices.
- Four high quality wheels with stopping function make the stable appliance the mobile support in the workshop.
